ALMA MATER

Oh, Alma Mater, fair and bright,
Thy honor we acclaim;
We rally round the Green and White
To laud thy noble name,
In thee we students shall renew
Our faith of days gone by,
Across the years we'll live anew
Thy spirit, Southside High.
Across the years we'll live anew
Thy spirit, Southside High.

Oh, dear Southside, thy loving ways
And charms will ever be,
Those memories of golden days,
Those friends and hearts so free,
In thee we pledge our honor due
And parting, sound thy cheers;
Our thoughts of you, so staunch, so true,
Will live through all the years.
Our thoughts of you, so staunch, so true,
Will live through all the years.

WALLACE J. HOWELL, M.A.
Principal

OUR PRINCIPAL

Patient, friendly, understanding—these describe the chief of our clan, Wallace J. Howell.

In his two years at Southside, Mr. Howell has won the respect and admiration of the students by his fairness in all decisions and his willingness to listen to our problems.

His white bucks and his faithful attendance at all school functions have made Southsiders realize that he is our friend, as well as our principal.

Absent when the picture was taken: J. Cecchini, vice-president.

THE CLAN OF '54

Counseling our clan through its four years at Southside have been our advisors, Mrs. Marion Lynch Burke and Leslie Travis.

As we look back, we will never forget those two wonderful people—always ready to give us encouragement and advice, or to help us plan our class dances, assemblies, our Junior play, Junior prom, and finally, our Senior play, banquet, and prom.

With the help of our advisors, our class officers each year have worked to make every effort a success. They have served us well, sacrificing time and effort for their duties.

To both our advisors and our officers we offer our grateful thanks.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

The first gathering of the "Clan of '54" came in September of 1950. A sense of frightened bewilderment was soon overcome thru the friendship formed with other lads and lassies who also shared our Freshman anxieties. Mrs. Marion Lynch Burke and Leslie Travis, as advisors, started us off on the "high road", and to them go our thanks for having kept us there.

For Freshman leaders of our clan, we selected Mary Amey Mosher, Catherine Keefe, Kathleen Reardon and James Buffalin. Cornelia Supple was chosen as historian for all four years. "The Freshman Kick-off" was our first clan effort, and its success gave us confidence and made us feel we were now a real part of the school.

In March we put out tartans aside and cheered "the wearing of the green", as we presented our clan assembly. At night we donned cute little green hats and attended "The Green Hat Hop", our clan dance.

With June came the end of our Freshman days, but our return to school did not loom quite so formidably.

Arthur Smith, Ronald Dixon, Kathleen Reardon, and James Buffalin led the clan during our Sophomore year. Our Freshman year had given us the experience we needed in working together as the "Clan of '54"; as Sophomores, we put this experience to good use.

Our "Skeleton Scamper", in October, found the lads and lassies "riding their brooms" down to the gym for an evening of fun. Then in December we were at the throttle of the "Santa Special". With a hopeful eye toward spring, we presented the "Cherry Blossom Ball" in February.

April was the month of our clan's assembly. With Jim DuBois as the capable interlocutor, and John Grim, LaVerne Anderson, Art Smith, and Jim Buffalin as the wise-cracking end men, we presented the "Showboat Minstrels". That evening, minus our grease-paint, we donned our kilts and tripped merrily to the music at our "Showboat Shuffle".

The final event of our Sophomore year was the "Yearbook Dance", which we presented in honor of the Seniors.

September 1952 found us returning to Southside again—but this time as upperclassmen. Our work became harder and our responsibilities greater. Leaders for the clan were Teresa Bercher, Joseph Augustine, Kathleen Reardon, and James Buffalin.

It seemed strange to walk the "moors" and not see our patriarch, Clifford McNaught. However, under Wallace J. Howell, his successor, school life soon proceeded in a normal and orderly fashion.

During our Junior year, the clan presented two dances—"The Witches' Waltz" and the annual "White Christmas Dance". Our clan play, "One Mad Night", with Jim DuBois and Foy Lusk in the leading roles, received much applause.

In May came our long-awaited Junior Day. For the assembly, we took our audience to a gay Mardi-Gras. That evening, for the first time in S.H.S. history, the Junior Prom was held in the Mark Twain Hotel.

As Seniors, we proudly wore our plaids on our return to school. To lead us through our last and most important year together, we selected Ronald Dixon, Joyce Cecchini, Nancy Pierson, and Dorothy Kohan.

Our first activity was the "Back to School Dance". Following this, all efforts were concentrated on our Senior play, "The Robe", which will be long remembered by those who saw it. The deeply thoughtful interpretation of the role of Marcellus, the Roman tribune, by Chuck Adair; the loyal, steadfast Demetrius as played by Merkle Stanton; and the courageous devotion of Diana, the fiancée of Marcellus, portrayed by Mickey Sweeney, was drama of a quality not soon to be forgotten.

In February we presented the Senior Carnival. In May we gave our final assembly program; then came June and the Senior Banquet and Prom. Closely following were Regents exams and, at last, the long-awaited Commencement.

Like those of other years, we wonder how four years could go so fast, and as we look back, we realize how much we have learned. We hope, too, that we have left our share to add to the traditions of Southside. Above all, we know that we will take away much more than we could ever give.

Last Will and Testament

WE, the Clan of '54, of auld Southside High School, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby publish our last will and testament:

I, Martha Sue McConnell, bequeath to the next Edsonian editor my typewriter.

I, Paul Hollenbeck, bequeath to Daphne Dean my artistic talent.

I, Dick Spirawk, bequeath to Leon Mosher, ... my scientific mind.

I, Ronald Dixon bequeath to the next Senior class president my leadership.

I, Peter Greven, bequeath to next year's El-So-Hi editor my bottle of ink.

I, Joseph Augustine, bequeath to the next Student Council president my Bible.

I, Teresa Bercher, bequeath to my sister, Terry, ... my ability to sing and dance.

I, Nancy Rietmann bequeath to next year's drum majorette my baton.

I, Gerald May, bequeath to Edward Michaels my athletic ability.

I, James DuBois, bequeath to Carl Hesselbach my M. C. ability.

I, Kate Keefe, bequeath to Mary Ellen Keenan my jokes.

I, Thomas McCann, bequeath to John Taft my good taste in clothes.

I, Nancy Eike, bequeath to Barbara Segur my parties.

I, Clifford Parks, bequeath to Rex Good my piano.

I, Art Smith, bequeath to Larry LaVelle my brushcut.

I, Bud McLaughlin, bequeath to Jack Lee my chair in Mr. Howell's office.

I, Carl Hanchett, bequeath to Ralph French my physique.

I, Ronald Guyer, bequeath to Kent Thall my sense of humor.

In the presence of witnesses, we subscribe our name on the twenty-eighth day of May, nineteen hundred and fifty four.

CLAN OF 1954

Signed and sealed by the Clan of 1954, who in our presence stated their last will and testament; at the request of this clan we have subscribed our names.

Wallace J. Howell
Marion Lynch Burke
Leslie Travis.

UNDERCLASS OFFICERS and ADVISERS

W. Hopkins, vice-president; G. Norman, president; M. L. Personius, secretary; M. E. Hogan, historian; P. Cordier, treasurer; Patrick Goostrey and Mrs. Margaret Hapeman, advisors.

1955

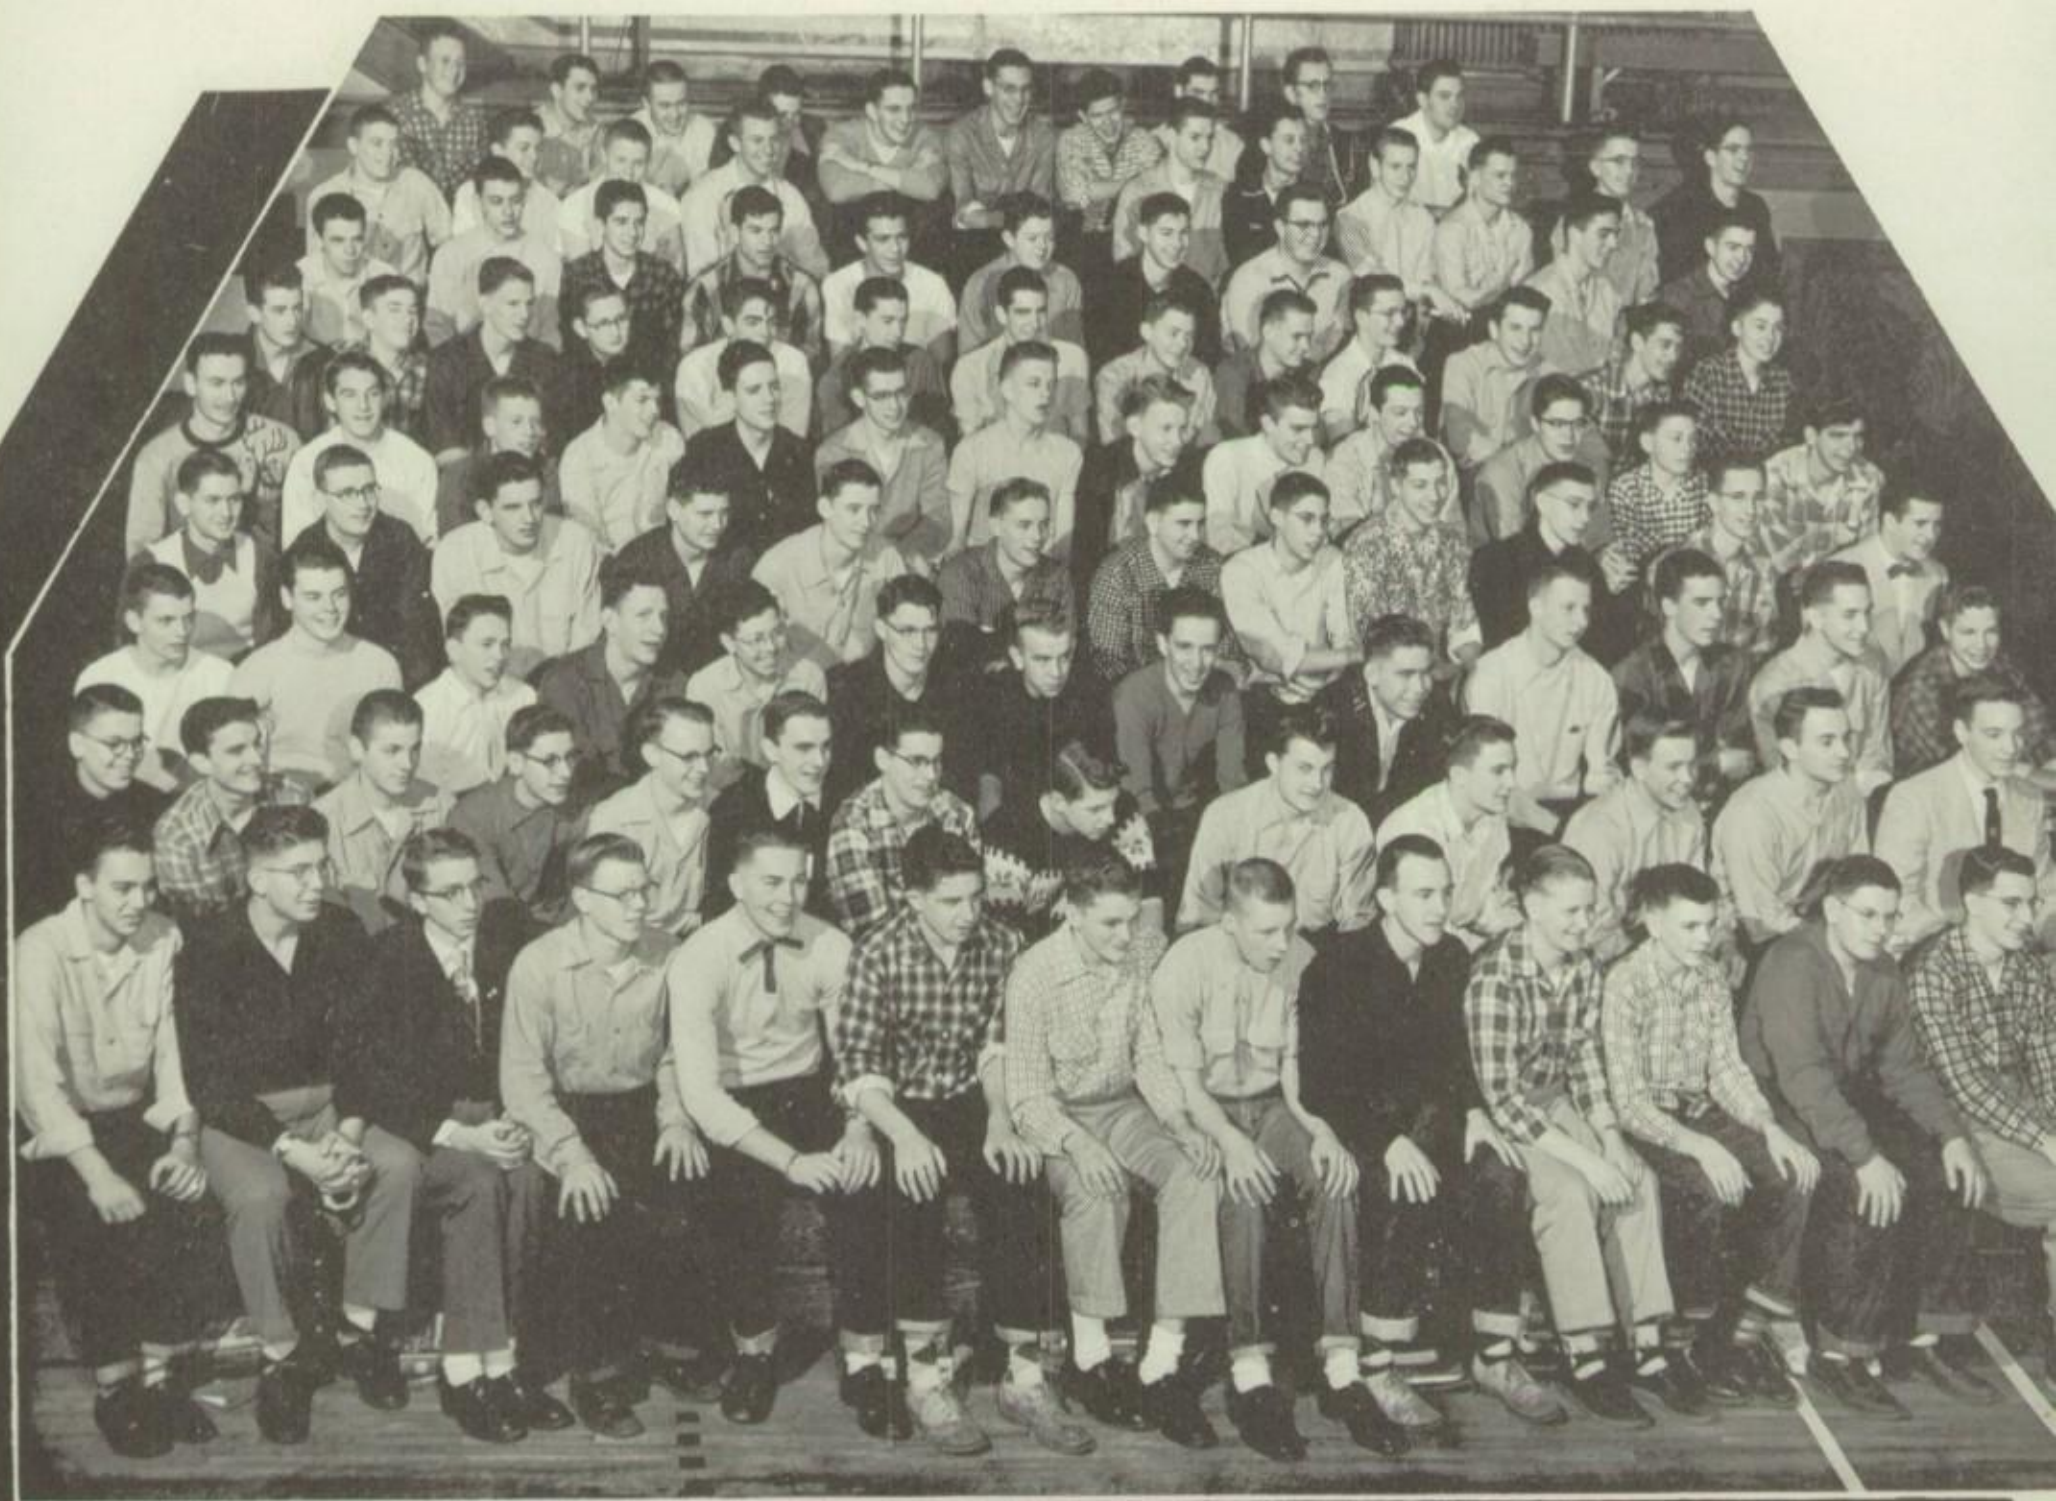

D. Dean, president; J. Burns, treasurer; E. Agan, historian; E. Michaels, vice-president; Irene St. John, advisor; J. Knapp, secretary; and Robert Habersaat, advisor.

J. Straley, secretary; S. Panosian, president; R. Morrison, vice-president; N. Kent, treasurer; Abraham Ferris and Miss Margaret Cleveland, advisors.

In September 1951, 334 wide-eyed Freshmen entered the big green doors to embark on a four year whirl through Southside High. Miss Irene St. John and Robert Habersaat were introduced by the principal as our advisors. We elected Joe Clark, president; Jack Speigel, vice-president; Daphne Dean, secretary; Ann Duffield, treasurer; and Elizabeth Agan, historian.

During the year we held three dances, in November, January, and on Freshman Day. Our class also had the grab-bag booth at the Senior Carnival. Now more firmly established at Southside, we approached our Sophomore year.

We again elected Joe Clark as our president and to aid him Larry LaVelle, Daphne Dean, Jack Lee, and Elizabeth Agan.

Kay Reazor and Carl Hesselbach were chairmen of the "Patriotic Prance". Shirley Battisti and Mervin Stanton were in charge of the "Winter Waltz", during which Larry LaVelle was crowned King Frost and Suzanne Messing, Queen Snowflake.

Our Sophomore Day assembly was under Jack Lawes and Larry Costello, while Sharon Vunk and Frances Symons directed the dance. Ending the year with a very successful "Yearbook Dance", we anxiously looked forward to being upper classmen.

Jim Sheldon, who was elected president of our class, was succeeded by Daphne Dean after Jim decided to be a three-year graduate. Ed Michaels was elected vice-president in a special election. We presented three informal dances, the Junior Play, April 28 and 29, and our Junior Day and Prom, on May 21.

Our first year at Southside we felt strange partly because the building was larger than grammar school, but most of all because we were Freshmen.

Under the advisorship of Mrs. Margaret Hapeman and Patrick Goostrey, we chose these officers: president - Edward Fitzpatrick; vice-president - Charles Myers; secretary - Dorothy Kelleher; treasurer - Sally Comfort, and historian - Mary Ellen Hogan.

Our first dance, "The Shamrock Shuffle" was held in March with Gail Norman and Damon Sykes as co-chairmen.

In the Senior Carnival our class supervised the check room.

In May the death of Edward Fitzpatrick, our president, saddened us all, but we were proud of the way Charles Myers assumed the leadership of the class.

This year we began to really feel as if we were a part of Southside. At last we were no longer Freshmen. We elected these officers right away: president - Gail Norman, vice-president - William Hopkins, secretary - Mary Lou Personius, Treasurer - Pat Cordier, Historian - Mary Ellen Hogan.

We had our Sophomore dance, "The Harvest Moon Hop." The co-chairmen chosen were Carol Whitford and Kenneth Mann.

Again we had a part in the Senior Carnival. We also presented the "Yearbook Dance" in honor of this year's Seniors. Our first two years at Southside have gone by quickly and we are looking forward to being upperclassmen next year.

We Freshmen, those bewildered strangers who walked cautiously in and about Southside, are now a well-organized class.

To counsel us through our four years, Miss Margaret Cleveland and Abraham Ferris were named as class advisors.

Early in the year we elected class officers. Under the direction of Stan Panosian, president; Richard Morrison, vice-president; Jeanette Straley, secretary; and Nellie Kent, treasurer, we have turned many projects into successes. Heading all our activities was the class council.

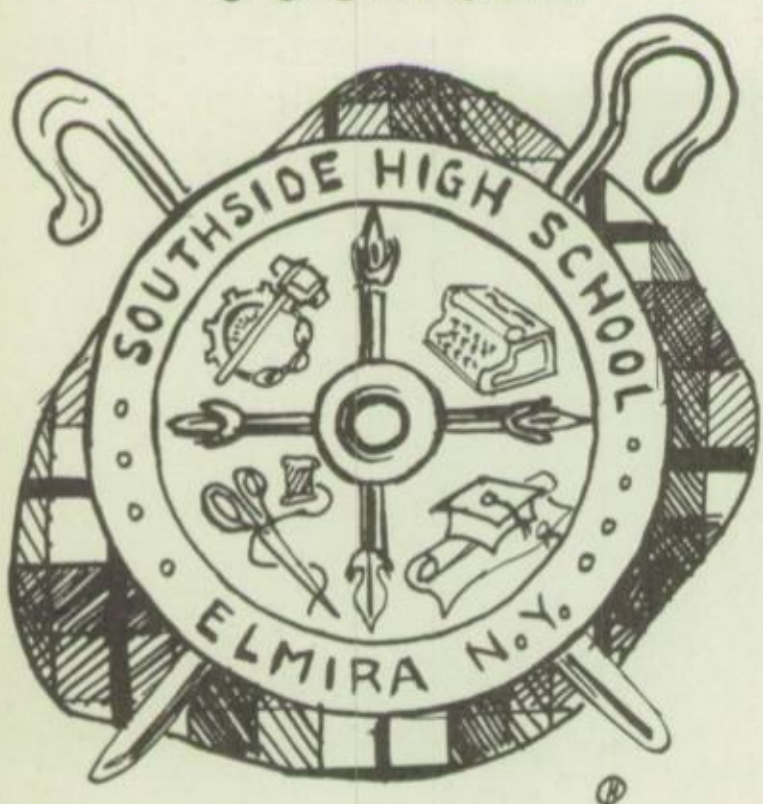

Our class contains both excellent students, as was proven by the large number of Freshmen on the Honor Roll, and talented performers, as were viewed in the Spring Hope Show.

We Freshmen have been very active during our first year. In the Senior Carnival we were in charge of a concession stand. In April we presented the "April Fools' Dance".

Yes, we, the class of '57 certainly did prove ourselves an effective Freshman group. We are proud to be a part of Southside and we are looking forward to our next three years.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Representatives from each homeroom and club make up our governing body, the Student Council.

Under the leadership of Joseph Augustine, these representatives faithfully attended the Monday night meetings and reported the weekly happenings in the school.

Among the various projects of the Student Council were: installation of a suggestion box, revision of the Council constitution, sale of festival records, operation of a booth in the Senior Carnival, and the publishing of monthly calendars for distribution to Southsiders.

Their major undertaking was the Spring Hope Show whose proceeds were used for the renovation of the stage.

Without a doubt, the Student Council, with the capable assistance of Miss Callahan and Mr. Howell, can close its books on a very successful year.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Scholarship, service, character, and leadership are the requirements for admittance to Southside's Alpha chapter of the National Honor Society. Consideration is first given to scholarship; then by faculty vote, each student is individually judged according to the other three standards.

The objectives of this society are to stimulate a desire to render service to the school, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character in the pupils.

Under the guiding hand of Miss Elsa Brookfield, the advisor of the organization, this year's members have enjoyed both business and social activities. A scholarship class was organized to better prepare candidates for the New York State Scholarship Examinations and enrich their high school education.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

One of Southside's vocal groups is the Girls' Glee Club, directed by Miss Dorothy E. Connor. Highlighting the year is the annual Spring Concert in which the Glee Club plays an important part. The girls' voices blend well to give a fine performance.

Enthusiasm and ability of the members make this an outstanding group.

ORCHESTRA

SECOND PERIOD CHOIR

At almost every season of the year, whether it is in preparation for the Christmas assembly or the annual Spring Concert, the second period chorus fills the halls of Southside with harmonious music. They are ably guided by Miss Dorothy Connor, director of Southside's vocal department.

The continuous practicing and occasional extra rehearsals are well rewarded by performances of perfection. Audiences who hear them agree that Southside is fortunate to have so fine a chorus.

SEVENTH PERIOD CHORUS

One chorus cannot accommodate the vast number of students with musical interest and ability—thus, the seventh period chorus was added to the music curriculum a number of years ago. Every year since, the chorus has been filled to capacity.

Members agree that the fun had by all, more than equals the work.

UPSILON KAPPA

Upsilon Kappa, the Usher's Club, is comprised of Senior girls. Providing ushers for school assemblies is just one of the club's many services—it also maintains the hostess table in the main hall for the convenience of visitors to the school.

The new advisor who began her duties in September is Miss Marion La Vine, who is to be commended for doing a fine job during the past year.

Always able and willing to be of assistance, this club is of service not only to the school, but to civic activities as well.

First Row: W. Coloroso, L. Hughes, J. McConnell, president. Second Row: R. Smith, Mr. Parsons, advisor; C. Rohr, R. Ketter, Mr. Lantz, advisor; A. Vandermark.

The members of the Junior Play of 1951 instituted the club to fill a definite need for dramatic training. In three years, under the capable supervision of Miss Ellen B. Moxley, the club has established itself on the Southside scene. Talent contests, play readings, assembly programs, variety shows, and social projects have been undertaken by the group this past year.

STAGE CREW

Although they rarely receive credit, the fellows on the stage crew are largely responsible for coordination and perfection of all school productions presented on the Southside stage. Their ability removes all backstage problems.

ONE MAD NIGHT

The tears, the laughs, the work, the fun—oh, what memories our Junior play, "One Mad Night," holds for us.

Jim DuBois was the hero, Don Cutter, who saved lovely Lucille, played by Foy Lusk. Not easily forgotten were the four lunatics who added to the mysterious atmosphere of the old house.

Then there were the aristocrats from the city, Mrs. Finch, her daughter, Gertrude, and the unforgettable colored maid, Depression. Highlighting the play was the dangerous escaped convict, Danny Siletto.

The cast survived the long rehearsals and were rewarded when the play was well received by the audience.

That Friday and Saturday we were very proud yet very sad to see it end.

THE ROBE

Despite adverse criticism beforehand we turned our Senior play, "The Robe" into an outstanding success.

Chuck Adair gave an almost professional performance as Marcellus, the Roman tribune, and Merkle Stanton and Mickey Sweeney were close seconds as Demetrius, the Greek slave, and Diana, Marcellus's fiancée.

In the supporting cast, every person contributed to the reverent air prevailing throughout the play.

"The Robe" will remain in the memories of everyone . . . cast, committees, and audience.

EDSONIAN for '54

A very efficient staff, directed by Cornelia Supple, managed the business of the Edsonian. They obtained sponsors and sold subscriptions to the students in order to finance this 1954 yearbook.

This group joined with the literary staff to give Southsiders their annual record of classes, clubs, and activities.

FRENCH CLUB

Second and third year French students meet to form "Le Cercle Francais," Southside's French Club. The main purpose of the club is to stimulate interest in French customs, but other social events are held. Their motto "Tout droit ou rein" means—everything right or nothing attempted.

The group is advised by Mrs. Marion Lynch Burke, French teacher.

SPANISH CLUB

Over thirty Juniors and Seniors comprised Southside's Spanish Club, "Los Panamericanos", in its third year of existence. All members of the third year class were eligible for membership, but in the second year classes only those with A or B averages were invited to join.

Meetings were held at which various speakers gave interesting talks concerning topics relating to Spanish.

Wilkinson, Miss Ritter, advisor.

Enrollment in this year's Cheerleaders' Club was the largest it has ever been. Heading this active organization was a Junior, Julie Knapp.

Under the guidance of Miss Ritter, a football banquet was held. Club members designed posters for each football game, and dances were staged in the gym after some of the basketball games.

TUMBLING

Four weeks of gym periods are devoted to learning the art of tumbling. Girls practice headstands, cartwheels, flips, and together work out difficult formations such as pyramids. These gym periods are interesting and are enjoyed by all participating.

G. A. A.

The Girls' Athletic Association, headed by Miss Margaret Cleveland, is the organization which sponsors all athletic events in the intramural period and after school. Clinics, playdays, and participation with other schools number a few of their activities.

VOLLEY- BALL

Eight teams participated in intramural volleyball this year, and the championship was won by the Junior team.

GIRLS' BOWLING

Bowling is a sport in which the girls have become increasingly active. Four teams were organized to play one night a week and awards were given to the winning team at the end of the year.

FOOTBALL '53

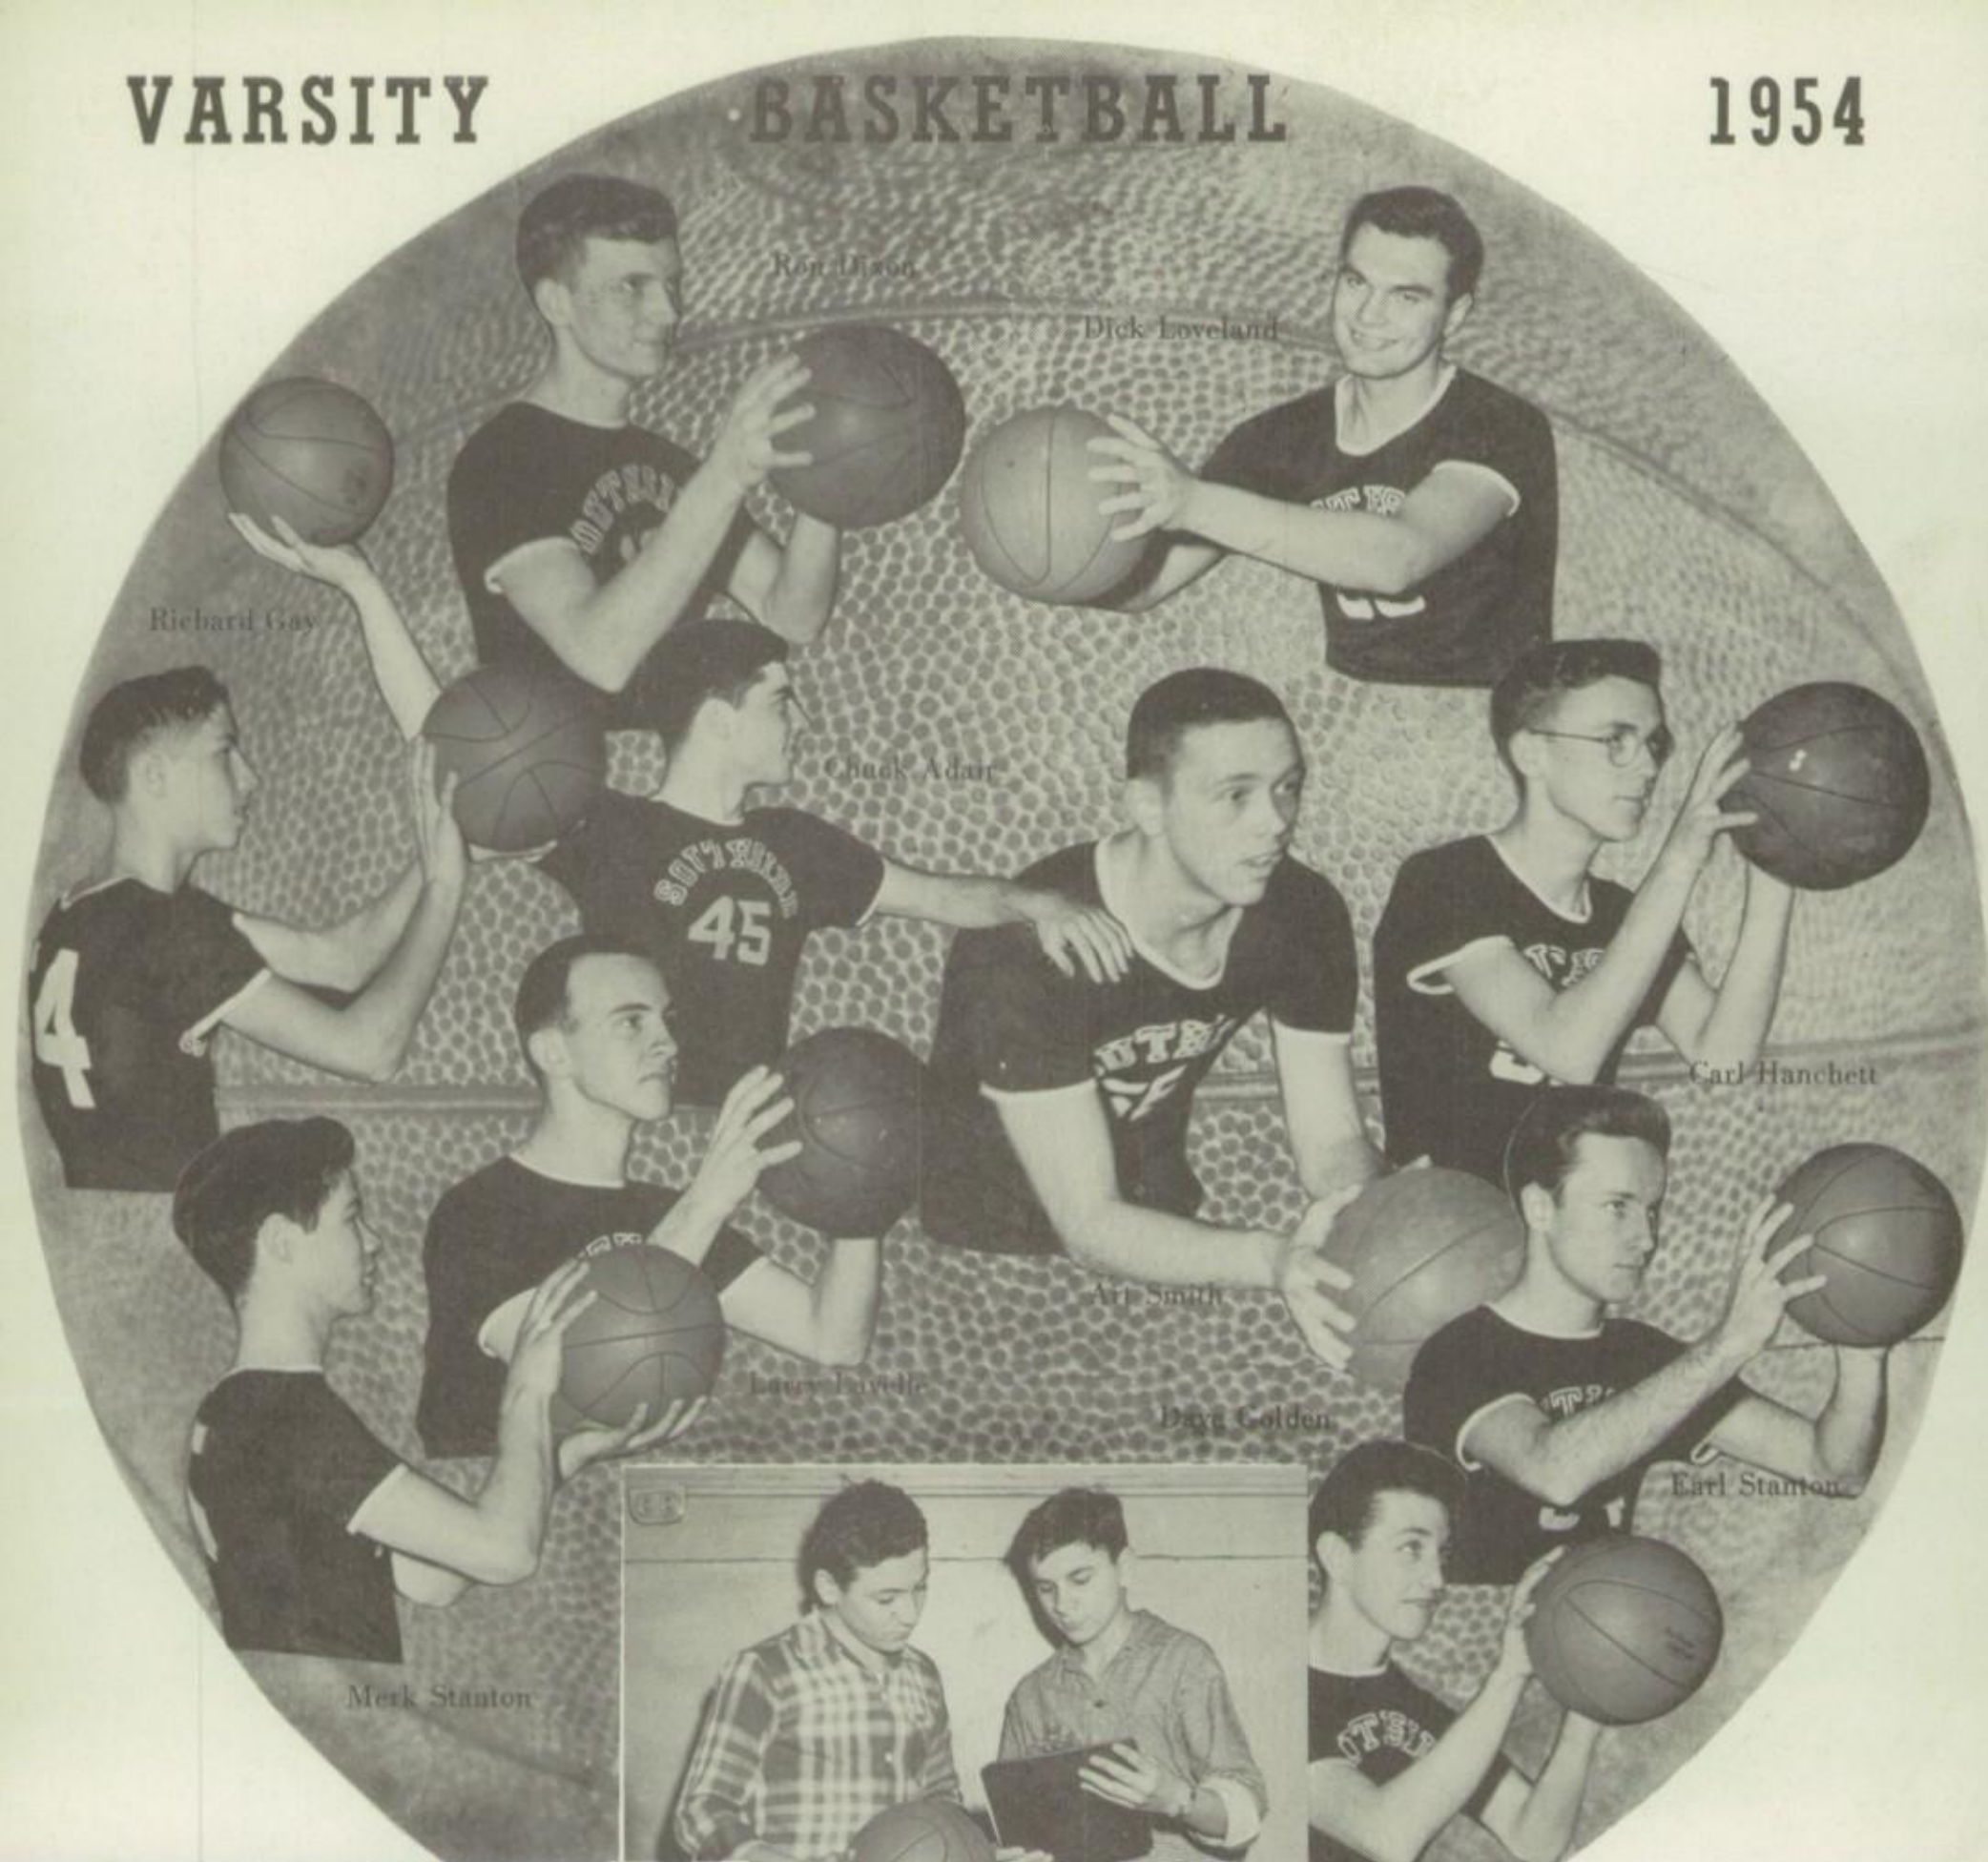

Football took a new turn for Southside this year. After only winning one game in the last two years, Southside, under a new mentor, Ted Casey, won three and lost five games. The starting eleven was composed of nine Seniors and two Juniors.

Coach Casey will have to find replacements for Bud McLaughlin (end), Earl Stanton (end), Bill Cassada (tackle), John Hale (tackle), Bob Hancock (guard), Art Smith (center). In the backfield they will be losing Jerry May (halfback), Jim Dubois (halfback), and Gary Sowers (quarterback).

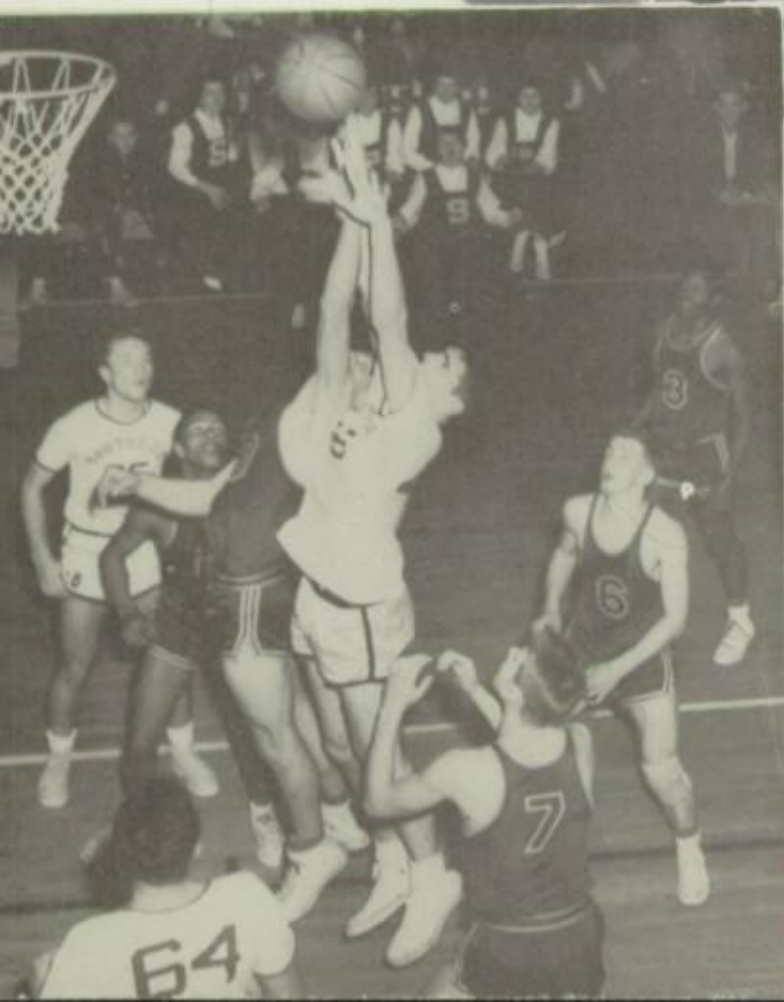

Southside will be putting all its hopes next year on ten returnees. Among these are Ed Michaels, who was voted a member of the All Southern Tier Conference and also a member of the Third Team All State.

The Little Hornets under the able coaching of Charlie Andrews and Bill Dalrymple made a good showing with 2-2-1 record. The squad, made up of mostly Freshmen and Sophomores, worked hard.

The experience they learn will help when these players are put on the varsity next year.

BASKETBALL

Southside had its best year in basketball since the two Elmira High Schools split up to form two teams in 1946. Under the Hornets' new Coach Bill Dalrymple, Southside won 9 and lost 7, winning the Western Division, Southern Tier Conference. The Southside team is the only one in the history of the school to hold two victories over the intra-city rivals, Elmira Free Academy.

Southside met Binghamton Central March 5 for the Southern Tier Crown. The Hornets lost this game 53-72

Coach Dalrymple will lose seven men from his eleven man team by graduation.

The Southside J. V. also made history this year by having the best J. V. record of any previous team. Coach Schwalb's team with a 14-2 record took the Western Division Crown along with her big brothers.

The Hornets met Binghamton North March 5 for the Southern Tier Conference Championship. The Little Hornets were more fortunate than their big brothers by winning the J. V. Championship, beating Binghamton North 60-40.

First Row: V. Mann, W. Cassada, T. Santarone, E. Stanton, R. Dixon, F. Renko, E. Drake, M. Palmieri, E. Michaels. Standing: Coach Habersaat, D. Frank, R. Gay, W. Frisk, D. Letson, W. Tuttle, K. Fitzpatrick, A. McGann, G. May, C. Hanchett, L. Lavelle, J. Palmieri, Mgr.

Coach Bob Habersaat turned in his third contribution to the trophy case last June. This is his third championship team in seven years. Replacements will have to be found for five graduates, (captain) Tony Santarone, (second baseman) Mike Palmieri, (right fielder) Bill Frisk, (third baseman) Dave Letson, and (pitcher) Al McCann.

WRESTLING

The wrestling team, led by co-captains, Jerry May and Joe Clark, made a good showing this year. Their 5-6 record speaks for itself. The experience that the underclassmen received will help next year's team. The high point of the season came when Jerry Lawes won the Sectional Championship in the 112 lb. class at Vestal.
